AGENDA

Christchurch, Wellington, Auckland

TIME	TITLE	PRESENTER	DESCRIPTION
8:30am	Registration & Coffee
9:00am	Welcome and Opening Address	Master of Ceremonies
9:10am	Pike River Coal; Catalyst for Change & the Human Cost of Tragedy	Neville Rockhouse	Neville will share with you how the Pike River disaster was a catalyst for change, and his personal story that highlights the impact a disaster can have on you professionally, physically, emotionally and spiritually.
10:10am	Legislation & Harmonisation in Australia - Lessons Learnt	Greg Smith (STE Safety & Legal)	Greg will share with you the experiences of organisations transitioning to the new legislation in Australia and what it means in practice in order to dispel some common myths around health and safety legislation under harmonisation.
10:45am	Morning Tea / Networking
11:00am	Make Safety Our Strength "Everyone who goes to work comes home safely"	Marcus Nalter (WorkSafe New Zealand)	Marcus will explain why New Zealand's Health and Safety record is nothing to be proud of, and update you on the new Health and Safety At Work Bill and what WorkSafe Inspectors will be focussed on when visiting your business.
11:45am	What the New Legislation Means for You	Greg Smith (STE Safety & Legal)	Two of the key changes to the health and safety regime in New Zealand have been the introduction of the primary duty of care and a positive obligation of "due diligence" for company officers. Greg will discuss these fundamental concepts and how they are applied in the context of workplace accidents, drawing from both the Australian experience of health and safety prosecutions, and the lessons of major accident event inquiries from around the world from the past 30 years.
12:30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	National Permit to Work Committee	NPTWC Representative	It has been a busy couple of years for the National Permit to Work Committee. Hear what they have been up to in their endeavours to develop a National Permit to Work Standard.
2.00pm	The Journey Ahead and The Importance of Establishing a Risk Based Approach to Training	Dave Thomson (Smart Staff International)	Dave will discuss the evolution of safety and training from originally being too basic, evolving to becoming overly bureaucratic and to today's approach of using a risk based approach in implementing efficient and user friendly safety and training.
2.45pm	Afternoon Tea / Networking
3.00pm	How To Change Culture and Embed a Safety Culture in Teams and People	Letia Ayres (Walking the Talk)	Letia will share with you practical examples of how to get individuals to adopt a safety mindset and the role of the team leader in this process.
4:00pm	Open Forum/Closing Address
4:30pm	Conference Closes		The formal part of the conference is now over. Join fellow delegates and guest speakers for a drink and a final opportunity to share lessons learnt and exchange ideas.

2015 SAFESITE CONFERENCE

GUEST SPEAKERS

Neville Rockhouse

Neville Rockhouse spent nearly 20 years in underground and opencut operations in Australia, before becoming professionally qualified in Safety Management and returning to New Zealand to operate a safety consultancy business for 10 years.

Neville holds a Post Graduate Diploma in Health and Safety and a Master of Occupational Health and Safety both from the University of Newcastle (NSW, Australia). Neville held the position of National Operations Manager for New Zealand Institute of Safety Management (NZISM) for 8 years and has been the NZ representative on the Board of the International Safety and Health Practitioners Organisations (INSPO).

Greg Smith

Legal Practice Director – STE Safety & Legal

Greg is an international award winning author and qualified lawyer who has spent almost two decades specialising in safety and health management, helping clients to understand their responsibility for safety and health, and developing processes to discharge those responsibilities.

In addition to being a lawyer, Greg has worked as the Principal Safety Advisor for a major oil and gas company and currently teaches the Accident Prevention unit at Curtin University in Western Australia.

Greg is the author of the books, Management Obligations for Safety and Health and the editor of the book Contractor Safety Management, which won the 2014 World Safety Organisation's Educational Award.

2015 SAFESITE CONFERENCE

GUEST SPEAKERS

Marcus Nalter

Construction and Manufacturing – WorkSafe New Zealand

Marcus emigrated from the UK to NZ where he had previously worked as a health and safety advisor for both the Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service and National Health Service. In 1999 he joined the Department of Labour and rose to the rank of Senior Inspector before joining the management team in 2007.

Marcus is the National Programme Manager for Construction and Manufacturing for WorkSafe NZ and is leading the safe construction and safe manufacturing campaigns.

Letia Ayres

Walking the Talk – Leadership & Culture Consultant

Letia Ayres is best known as a talented speaker on the topic of Culture Change.

Nurturing a life-long interest in human potential, Letia has fuelled her appetite to transform individuals, teams and organisations across such diverse industries, as: fitness, mining, pharmaceutical, manufacturing, finance, health insurance, telecommunications, energy, utilities and investment banking.

Letia is also a designer of programmes that support organisations who are interested in creating lasting positive change for their people and the community at large. Her programmes both challenge and inspire, and are considered truly transformational experiences.

With 15 years experience in the field of achievement motivation and behavioural dynamics, Letia attributes her success as a performance coach to a lasting curiosity about human behaviour.
